- (b) section 11(2)(a) shall not apply to opportunities for promotion or transfer to, or training for, such employment.

(2) Being a man is a genuine occupational qualification for a job only where—

- (a) the essential nature of the job calls for a man for reasons of physiology (excluding physical strength or stamina) or, in dramatic performances or other entertainment, for reasons of authenticity, so that the essential nature of the job would be materially different if carried out by a woman;
- (b) the job needs to be held by a man to preserve decency or privacy because
  - (i) it is likely to involve physical contact with men in circumstances where they might reasonably object to its being carried out by a woman; or
  - (ii) the holder of the job is likely to do his work in circumstances where men might reasonably object to the presence of a woman because they are in a state of undress or are using sanitary facilities;
- (c) the job is likely to involve the holder of the job doing his work, or living, in a private home and needs to be held by a man because objection might reasonably be taken to allowing to a woman—
  - (i) the degree of physical or social contact with a person living in the home; or
  - (ii) the knowledge of intimate details of such a person's life,which is likely, because of the nature or circumstances of the job or of the home, to be allowed to, or available to, the holder of the job;
- (d) the nature or location of the establishment makes it impracticable for the holder of the job to live elsewhere than in premises provided by the employer, and
  - (i) the only such premises which are available for persons holding that kind of job are lived in, or normally lived in, by men and are not equipped with separate sleeping accommodation for women and sanitary facilities which could be used by women in privacy from men; and

- (e) the nature of the establishment, or of the part of it within which the work is done, requires the job to be held by a man because—
- (i) it is, or is part of, a hospital, prison or other establishment for persons requiring special care, supervision or attention;
  - (ii) those persons are all men (disregarding any woman whose presence is exceptional); and
  - (iii) it is reasonable, having regard to the essential character of the establishment or that part, that the job should not be held by a woman;
- (f) the holder of the job provides individuals with personal services promoting their welfare or education, or similar personal services, and those services can most effectively be provided by a man;
- (g) (Repealed 18 of 2014 s. 14)

- (i) the job is one of 2 to be held by a married couple.

(3) Subsection (2) applies where some only of the duties of the job fall within any paragraph of that subsection (except paragraph (i)) as well as where all of them do.

(4) Paragraph (a), (b), (d), (e), (f) or (h) of subsection (2) shall not apply in relation to the filling of a vacancy at a time when the employer already has male employees— (Amended 18 of 2014 s. 14)

- (d) by subjecting her to any other detriment.

(4) Subsection (2)(c) shall not apply to benefits, facilities or services of any description if the principal is concerned with the provision (for payment or not) of benefits, facilities or services of that description to the public, or to a section of the public to which the woman belongs, unless that provision differs in a material respect from the provision of the benefits, facilities or services by the principal to his contract workers.

the Commission may apply to the District Court for an injunction restraining him from doing so; and the District Court, if satisfied that the application is well-founded, may grant the injunction in the terms applied for or in more limited terms.

(5) Without prejudice to subsection (4), if it appears to the Commission that a person has done an act which was unlawful by virtue of section 43, the Commission may apply to the District Court for an order imposing a financial penalty on such person; and the District Court, if satisfied that the application is well-founded, may make such an order.

(6) The financial penalty imposed under subsection (5) shall not exceed $10,000 for the first occasion on which a penalty is imposed, and $30,000 for the second and any subsequent occasion on which a penalty is imposed in respect of the same person.

(b) forms by which the respondent may if he so wishes reply to any questions.

(2) Where the person aggrieved questions the respondent (whether or not in accordance with forms referred to in subsection (1))—

(b) if it appears to the District Court that the respondent deliberately, and without reasonable excuse, omitted to reply within a reasonable period or that his reply is evasive or equivocal, the Court may draw any inference from that fact it considers it just and equitable to draw, including an inference that he committed an unlawful act.

(3) The Commission may—

(a) prescribe the period within which questions must be served in order to be admissible under subsection (2)(a);

(b) prescribe the manner in which a question, and any reply by the respondent, may be served.

(4) Rules under the District Court Ordinance (Cap. 336) may enable the District Court entertaining a claim under section 76 to determine, before the date fixed for the hearing of the claim, whether a question or reply is admissible under this section or not.

(5) This section is without prejudice to any other enactment or rule of law regulating interlocutory and preliminary matters in proceedings before the District Court, and has effect subject to any enactment or rule of law regulating the admissibility of evidence in such proceedings.

(6) In this section, respondent (答辯人) includes a prospective respondent.

CAP 480 SEX DISCRIMINATION ORDINANCE Section 84 Assistance by way of conciliation

(1) A person may lodge with the Commission a complaint in writing alleging that another person has done an act which is unlawful by virtue of a provision of this Ordinance.

(2) A representative complaint may be lodged under subsection (1) in accordance with rules made under section 88.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), where a complaint is lodged under subsection (1), the Commission shall—

- (c) a period of more than 12 months has elapsed beginning when the act was done;
- (d) in a case to which subsection (2) applies, it determines, in accordance with rules made under section 88, that the complaint should not be a representative complaint; or

(5) Where the Commission decides not to conduct, or to discontinue, an investigation into an act the subject of a complaint lodged under subsection (1), it shall by notice served on the person who lodged the complaint advise him of—

- (a) that decision; and
- (b) the reasons for that decision.

(6) Evidence of anything said or done by any person in the course of conciliation under this section (including anything said or done at any conference held for the purposes of such conciliation) is not admissible in evidence in any proceedings under this Ordinance except with the consent of that person.

(7) For the avoidance of doubt, it is hereby declared that subsection (6) shall not apply where

- (a) a complaint is lodged under subsection (1); and
- (b) a settlement has been effected of the matter to which the act the subject of the complaint relates.

CAP 480 SEX DISCRIMINATION ORDINANCE Section 85 Assistance other than by way of conciliation

(1) Where a complaint has been lodged under section 84(1) but, for whatever reason, there has not been a settlement of the matter to which the act the subject of the complaint relates,

- (2) The Commission shall consider an application under subsection (1) and may grant it if it thinks fit to do so, in particular where—
- (a) the case raises a question of principle; or
  - (b) it is unreasonable, having regard to the complexity of the case or the applicant's position in relation to the respondent or another person involved or any other matter, to expect the applicant to deal with the case unaided.

(3) Assistance by the Commission under this section may include—

- (a) giving advice;
- (b) arranging for the giving of advice or assistance by a solicitor or counsel;
- (c) arranging for representation by any person including all such assistance as is usually given by a solicitor or counsel in the steps preliminary or incidental to any proceedings, or in arriving at or giving effect to a compromise to avoid or bring to an end any proceedings;
- (d) any other form of assistance which the Commission may consider appropriate, but paragraph (c) shall not affect the law and practice regulating the descriptions of persons who may appear in, conduct, defend and address a court in, any proceedings except to the extent permitted under rules made in accordance with section 73B of the District Court Ordinance (Cap. 336).

(4) In so far as expenses are incurred by the Commission in providing the applicant with assistance under this section the recovery of those expenses (as taxed or assessed in such manner as may be prescribed by relevant rules) shall constitute a first charge for the benefit of the Commission—

- (a) on any costs or expenses which (whether by virtue of a judgment or order of the District Court or an agreement or otherwise) are payable to the applicant by any other person in respect of the matter in connection with which the assistance is given; and
- (b) so far as relates to any costs or expenses, on his rights under any compromise or settlement arrived at in connection with that matter to avoid or bring to an end any proceedings.

(5) The charge conferred by subsection (4) shall be subject to any charge under the Legal Aid Ordinance (Cap. 91) and to any provision in that Ordinance for payment of any sum into the Supplementary Legal Aid Fund established under that Ordinance.

(6) In this section—

CAP 480 SEX DISCRIMINATION ORDINANCE Section 86 Period within which proceedings to be brought

(1) The District Court shall not consider a claim under section 76 unless proceedings in respect of the claim are instituted before the end of the period of 24 months beginning—

(a) when the act complained of was done; or

(b) if there is a relevant report in relation to that act, with the day on which the report is published or made available for inspection under section 73, whichever is the later.

(2) The District Court shall not consider an application under—

(a) section 82(2)(a) unless it is made before the end of the period of 24 months beginning when the act to which it relates was done;

(b) section 82(4) unless it is made before the end of the period of 5 years so beginning.

(2A) For the purposes of determining the period under subsection (1) within which proceedings may be brought, where an act to which the claim relates was the subject of a complaint lodged under section 84(1), then the period that elapsed between the date when the complaint was lodged and the date when the complaint was disposed of under section 84(3) or (4), as certified in writing by the Commission, shall be disregarded. (Added 71 of 1997 s. 8. Amended 29 of 2008 s. 96)

(3) Notwithstanding subsections (1) and (2), the District Court may consider any claim or application which is out of time if, in all the circumstances of the case, it considers that it is just and equitable to do so.

(4) For the purposes of subsection (3), the circumstances of the case include, in relation to any claim, whether the act to which the claim relates was the subject of a complaint lodged under section 84(1) and, if so, the period that elapsed between when the act was done and when that complaint was so lodged.

(5) For the purposes of this section—

(a) where the inclusion of any term in a contract renders the making of the contract an unlawful act, that act shall be treated as extending throughout the duration of the contract;

(b) any act extending over a period shall be treated as done at the end of that period; and

and, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, a person shall be taken for the purposes of this section to decide upon an omission when he does an act inconsistent with doing the omitted act or, if he has done no such inconsistent act, when the period expires within which he might reasonably have been expected to do the omitted act if it was to be done.

(6) The Chief Executive in Council may, by notice in the Gazette, amend subsection (1) by substituting a longer period for the period specified in that subsection. (Amended 66 of 1999 s. 3)

(7) In this section, relevant report (有關報告), in relation to an act referred to in subsection (1), means a report—

- (a) published or made available for inspection under section 73; and
- (b) from which it can reasonably be construed (and whether or not the report mentions, or was in any way prepared in consequence of, the act) that the Commission is of the opinion that the act, or the class of acts to which the act belongs, is unlawful under a provision of Part 3, 4 or 5.

(Amended E.R. 1 of 2013)

CAP 480 SEX DISCRIMINATION ORDINANCE Part 9 Miscellaneous

CAP 480 SEX DISCRIMINATION ORDINANCE Section 87 Validity and revision of contracts

- (a) its inclusion renders the making of the contract unlawful by virtue of this Ordinance;
- (b) it is included in furtherance of an act rendered unlawful by this Ordinance; or
- (c) it provides for the doing of an act which would be rendered unlawful by this Ordinance.

(3) A term in a contract which purports to exclude or limit any provision of this Ordinance is unenforceable by any person in whose favour the term would operate apart from this subsection.

(4) Subsection (3) shall not apply to a contract settling a claim to which section 76 applies.

(5) On the application of any person interested in a contract to which subsection (2) applies, the District Court may make such order as it thinks just for removing or modifying any term made unenforceable by that subsection; but such an order shall not be made unless all persons affected have been given notice of the application (except where under rules made under the District Court Ordinance (Cap. 336) notice may be dispensed with) and have been afforded an opportunity to make representations to the Court.

(6) An order under subsection (5) may include provision as respects any period before the making of the order.
